

Elisa Mazen

Managing Director, Head of Global Growth, Portfolio Manager

"Our approach to identifying potential investments is structured, systematic and objective."

Elisa Mazen

Elisa is the head of ClearBridge's Global Growth Equity investment team and co-manages numerous global and international growth strategies. Elisa is responsible for covering the consumer sector for our international and global growth portfolios. She has 35 years of investment industry experience.

Elisa joined ClearBridge from predecessor firm Global Currents Investment Management, which was founded in 2008 by a group of portfolio managers from Brandywine Global Investment Management. Prior to joining Global Currents, Elisa was a Managing Director and Head of the International and Global Equity Investments Group at Oppenheimer Capital, a division of Allianz Global Investors. In addition, Elisa was Executive Vice President and Portfolio Manager for the Central European Value Fund and had responsibility for a number of other funds at the firm. Prior to Oppenheimer, she was a portfolio manager at Clemente Capital where she managed assets for public pension funds. Elisa began her career at Mitchell Hutchins Asset Management, now a subsidiary of UBS, in the High Yield investment area.

Elisa received her BA in Economics and Finance from Douglass College, Rutgers University and serves as a member of the Douglass College Investment Committee.

Investment Vehicles

- International Growth ADR SMA Strategy
- Global Growth Strategy
- International Growth EAFE Strategy
- International Growth Strategy
- ClearBridge International Growth Fund
- ClearBridge International Growth ADR Portfolios
- ClearBridge International Growth ADR ESG Portfolios

Managed Strategies

- International Growth ADR SMA Strategy
- Global Growth Strategy
- International Growth EAFE Strategy
- International Growth Strategy