

Charles Harris

Managing Director, Director of Research, Senior Research Analyst for Industrials

"Determining the value of a business and identifying mispricings is the basis of the fundamental analysis that drives the firm's active management decisions."

Charles Harris

Charles Harris is the Director of Research and Senior Research Analyst for Industrials at ClearBridge, where he leads the firm's team of sector research analysts. Chuck is also a member of the ClearBridge Brokerage Committee. He joined ClearBridge Investments in 2011 and has 37 years of investment industry experience.

Chuck has a wide range of experience, having worked as a Senior Equity Analyst at SAC Capital; Managing Director at EMS Capital/M. Safra & Co.; Partner at Saranac Capital Management; Director at Salomon Brothers Asset Management; Director at INVESCO; Managing Director at CIBC World Markets; and Associate Research Director at Value Line.

Chuck's key ESG considerations for the industrials sector include Environmental impacts of products; labor management; governance; health and safety; environmental regulation and compliance; environmental efficiency of operations.

Chuck graduated with an AB in Political Science from Vassar College.