
UNEP FI: A Legal Framework for the Integration of Environmental, Social and Governance Issues into Institutional Investment

The key question of whether integration of ESG issues into investment policy is voluntarily permitted, legally required or hampered by law is addressed in this report, which looks at the regulatory and legal regime in several countries and assesses their impact on ESG investing.