

Albert Grosman

Managing Director, Portfolio Manager

"A stock's price informs us about market expectations for value creation. The question is whether it is discounting the appropriate set of assumptions."

Albert Grosman

Albert co-manages the Small Cap Strategy, Small Cap Value Strategy and the All Cap Value Strategy. He has 29 years of investment industry experience.

Albert joined a predecessor organization in 2007. Prior to joining the firm, he worked as an equity analyst specializing in small and mid cap companies with Long Trail Investment Management, Phinity Capital, Cyllenius Capital Management (which was acquired by BlackRock Inc.) and Fidelity Management & Research. During his tenure at Fidelity, Albert was a member of the Small Cap team and from 1997 to 1999 was a portfolio manager. Over the years, Albert has gained broad based research experience with coverage responsibilities across multiple industries, including: consumer durables, consumer discretionary, technology and health care. His previous responsibilities include international market research, focused on Latin America.

Albert obtained a BBA in Business Administration from Emory University and an MBA from Columbia Business School.
